SURF AIR TO EXPAND ITS “ALL-YOU-CAN-FLY” SERVICE TO SAN JOSE INTERNATIONAL

(Santa Monica, Calif.) – March 28, 2016 – Surf Air, the nation’s first all-you-can-fly private air travel club, announced daily service to Mineta San José International Airport (SJC) beginning April 4, 2016. San Jose will become the third Bay Area airport served by Surf Air with daily service currently at San Carlos Airport (SQL) and Oakland International Airport (OAK). The addition of up to three daily flights to SJC will bring Surf Air’s total number of daily flights to the Bay Area to up to seventeen on peak weekdays.

“We are pleased to provide additional service, flexibility and convenience for our Members who are typically California-based entrepreneurs, investors, and other professionals who travel frequently between these two metro areas,” said CEO of Surf Air, Jeff Potter. “We continue to expand our services to meet the fast-growing market demand for our flexible air travel alternative. And, by utilizing the membership club model, Surf Air is able to offer private aviation at affordable rates to an ever-increasing audience who value the time savings that we provide.”

Effective April 4, 2016, Surf Air will offer the following flight schedule between the Bay Area and LA Basin:

- Up to 3 daily round-trips between Hawthorne and San Jose (New)
- Up to 5 daily round-trips between Hawthorne and San Carlos
- Up to 4 daily round-trips between Burbank and San Carlos
- Up to 3 daily round-trips between Hawthorne and Oakland
- Up to 2 daily round-trips between Burbank and Oakland

To celebrate the launch of their new San Jose service, Surf Air is offering prospective Members the opportunity to purchase one-time test flights between Hawthorne and San Jose for a limited-time price of $500 round-trip*, valid for travel between April 4 and April 30.
