

SURFAIR

Lufthansa Miles & More Members Can Now Redeem Miles for All-You-Can Fly Surf Air Monthly Memberships

*Membership airline offering more ways to experience smart and affordable traveling throughout California and Vegas

SANTA MONICA, CA – November 1, 2016 – Surf Air, the all-you-can-fly membership club, announced that Miles & More members will receive an invitation to redeem their miles on either a round-trip or a month-long all-you-can-fly subscription within Surf Air's network. These Miles & More members will have to enter their account information, select the round-trip or all-you-can-fly option, and redeem their choice of flights.

“By inviting new users to experience Surf Air’s streamlined experience, including easy booking, avoidance of long lines, and travel flexibility, frequent travellers will be able to experience best-in-class travel,” said Jeff Potter, CEO of Surf Air. “We are excited to cooperate with Miles & More, the largest frequent flyer and award programme in Europe, as so many of their values for travellers directly reflect those of Surf Air.”

Through the new cooperation, this exclusive award will offer smart and convenient private flights across Surf Air’s U.S. network for all Miles & More members. Members are able to redeem the following award miles until the end of March 2017, choosing between a round-trip journey and the exciting all-you-can-fly option.

- Private Round-Trip flight – redemptions starting at 25,000 award miles, including round-trip private flying anywhere in the Surf Air network and offering mixed payment options
- All-You-Can-Fly in California and Las Vegas* – redemptions starting at 50,000 award miles, including one-month unlimited flights on executive aircrafts, up to 90 daily flights connecting 12 destinations and offering mixed payment options

“As a frequent flyer and award program we are always keen to offer new benefits and value propositions that make our program even more attractive and relevant for our members,” explains Harald Deprosse, Managing Director of the Miles & More GmbH. “Surf Air with its innovative, premium concept fits perfectly in our portfolio and will add additional value to the Miles & More program.”

Surf Air offers flyers timesaving travel throughout California and to Las Vegas* with convenient and comfortable private flights. With up to 90 daily flights serving 12 private airports, you can maximize your schedule by arriving just 15 minutes before your flight and then relax in the comfort of custom-designed executive aircrafts.

To find out more about Surf Air, how to redeem your miles, or how to become a Surf Air Member, please visit: <http://www.surfair.com>.

*Surf Air does not currently operate outside the state of California. Scheduled service between Hawthorne and Las Vegas' McCarran International Airport is arranged through an FAA- and DOT- certified partner carrier, Advanced Air, LLC.

About Surf Air

Launched in 2013 in California, Surf Air is the easy and smart way to fly. The world’s first membership club of its kind, Surf Air simplifies flying by providing limitless flights in the Surf Air network for a monthly fee. Servicing California, Vegas and European destinations, Surf Air is redefining the future of flying and living for its members. Featured in the LA Times, Wall Street

SURFAIR

Journal, BBC, CNBC, Fox Business and many other media outlets for disrupting the air travel industry, the airline provides exclusive service on executive aircraft to and from convenient airports in the US and Europe including London, Zurich and Cannes with service to additional locations to follow. For additional information visit www.surfair.com, or follow Surf Air at www.facebook.com/surfair, www.instagram.com/surfair/ and www.youtube.com/surfair.

PR contact:

Alexandra Vander Weele

Email: SurfAir@text100.com

Phone: 415 593 8488

About Miles & More

Miles & More is the largest frequent flyer and award programme in Europe. More than 20 years of experience and collaboration with 300 partners worldwide make the Frankfurt-based operator, Miles & More GmbH, an expert in successful customer loyalty.

Miles & More members are not only able to earn and redeem miles when flying, but also with sophisticated brands in all areas of life, such as those offered by our partners in the areas of shopping and lifestyle, telecommunications and electronics, as well as hotels and car hire. They enjoy participation in an exclusive world of selected premium products as well as exclusive premium offers, for example in the Lufthansa WorldShop stores, popular flight awards and our secure Miles & More credit card portfolio. Particularly in its core markets – Germany, Austria and Switzerland – partner companies benefit from access to a sophisticated target group, and use award miles for customer retention.

Together with seven partners, the frequent flyer and award programme commenced in Germany on 1 January 1993. Since September 2014, Miles & More GmbH has been an independent company and full subsidiary of Deutsche Lufthansa AG.

More information at www.miles-and-more.com and at www.miles-and-more.com/press

Miles & More Press Office

Tel.: +49 69 719168-159

Email: press@miles-and-more.com

###